

Conference Programme

- 0900 Registration Opens
- 0930 Tour Dunfermline Carnegie Library and Galleries or
Visit Carnegie Birthplace Museum
- 1030 Conference Opens
- 1100 Remote and Digital Volunteering/Work: The Key to Increasing
Museum Accessibility for Museum Workers and Volunteers
Dr Laura Noakes, Research Assistant, The Devil's Porridge Museum
- 1130 They Might Be Giants- After the Fire
Mike Benson, Managing Director, Scottish Crannog Centre
- 1200 How Trade Unions Can Help to Address Wellbeing Issues
Across the Sector
Philip Brooks, Trade Union Organiser, Prospect
- 1230 Lunch Break
- 1330 Talk on Fife's Linoleum Project or Visit Dunfermline Abbey
- 1430 Wellbeing in Anti-Racism Practice
*Led by Sheila Asante, Project Manager: Empire, Slavery & Scotland's Museums, Museums Galleries Scotland along with Corinne Fowler, Mélina
Valdelièvre and Zandra Yeaman*
- 1530 Online Support: A Free Resource
Devon McHugh, Senior Partnerships Manager and Helen Raggett, Senior Resources Manager, Museums Galleries Scotland
- 1600 AGM
- 1630 Conference Closes

SCOTTISH
MUSEUMS
FEDERATION

CONFERENCE 2022

Health and Wellness in Heritage

Dunfermline Carnegie Library & Galleries

Monday 16 May 2022

10:00 - 16:30

£5 digital, £15 members, £30 non-members